

Borderland State Park

Department of Conservation and Recreation

December 2014

259 Massapoag Ave.
North Easton, MA02356
(508) 238-6566

coming events

Saturday
December 6

Holiday Gift Shop Sale, 11:00-2:00pm, Visitor Center

The Friends' gift shop will be open for your holiday purchases. Enjoy the holiday savings – up to 75% off selected items. The Friends are introducing the first Borderland Ornament which will be on sale. Cash only.

Sunday
December 7

Holiday Gift Shop Sale, 12:00-2:00pm, Ames Mansion

The Friends' gift shop will be open for your holiday purchases. Enjoy the holiday savings – up to 75% off selected items. The Friends are introducing the first Borderland Ornament which will be on sale. Cash only.

Sunday
December 7

Hand Bell Choir, 2:00-4:00pm, Ames Mansion Library

Ring in the season with the Unity Church Hand Bell Choir in the ornate two-story Ames Mansion Library. Refreshments will be served at this popular event. Tickets $8 for members, $10 for non-members. Limited seating – first come – first seated. Call park in case of snow.

Sunday
December 7

Movie: "Polar Express," 6:00pm, Ames Mansion Library

The Friends of Borderland and the park staff will transform the ornate two-floor library into an old fashion movie theatre and show the holiday classic, "Polar Express." There will be refreshments for all. Donations are welcomed. Space is limited; please call 508-238-6566 to reserve your seat. Enter and park at 257 Massapoag Ave., North Easton, MA. Call park in case of snow.

Sunday
December 14

"A Christmas Carol", 1:00pm, Ames Mansion Library

Join Paul Hayden and Bill McCarthy as they do a dramatic reading of Charles Dickens, "A Christmas Carol." The Friends are honored to present this duo at Borderland for the first time. They perform this holiday classic throughout New England. Limited Seating – first come – first seated. Call park in case of snow.

Borderland State Park 259 Massapoag Ave., North Easton, MA 02356
Tel. (508) 238-6566